Good Seeds!

So much goes into preparing for our mission trips, not the least of which is “clearing your head”. So, take a minute and answer these random but related questions. Write down your answers – and email them to MissionTrips@adonaipartners.org. You may be asked to discuss your answers during any of the discussion sessions:

1. What first awakened your interest in missions?
2. When someone says "missionary," whose name comes to your mind first?
3. What one word would describe your dream for the ideal mission trip?
4. At what age do you first remember anything about missions?
5. What is one exciting thing happening in your world?
6. If you were offered a free ticket to a mission field of your choice, where would you go?
7. What three words described the last missions teaching or event you experienced?
8. If you could entertain one missionary or couple in your home who would it be? Why?
9. Complete this sentence. "If I had $500 to contribute to one mission field, it would be . . . . . ." Why?
10. Describe a missionary in one word
